LOCATION

The building is situated in the heart of the town centre, offering an abundance of first-class retail and an array of dining options. Richmond upon Thames is arguably one of the most beautiful parts of London and is home to a large number of major businesses. The Green is the focal point of this historic town, providing a mix of office and residential buildings around a 12 acre green. Richmond is located approximately 8 miles south west of Central London and benefits from excellent road connections with it's proximity to the A316. Public transport links are excellent with journey times to Waterloo by rail in approx. 18 mins.

DESCRIPTION

Shearwater House is a grade A office building which has undergone substantial refurbishment and extensions by the Landlord to provide high quality office accommodation within the much sought after location of The Green in Richmond. The property is available as a whole or on a floor by floor basis.
