UNIQUE & EXCITING OFFERING

FOR KINGSTON UPON THAMES

NEW TO THE SCENE

Combining history with contemporary, The Drapery was the former fashion school to Kingston College and is currently undergoing an extensive phased refurbishment which will offer an exciting new office environment of up to 32,842 sq ft in the London suburban office scene.

SUBURBAN LIFE

Prominently situated in the centre of Kingston Upon Thames and just 150 metres from the River Thames, The Drapery, Kingston offers office accommodation for businesses in a desirable and affluent Royal Borough, just moments away from the hustle and bustle of the Capital. Whether by train, car, bus, river boat or for the “go fit” by bicycle, Kingston is a vibrant, well-connected neighbourhood.

From the relaxing river walkway lined with pubs and restaurants, to the bustling Ancient Market and quirky independent shops dotted amongst our most favourite high street brands, suburban Kingston is a unique balance of environments.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS

CGI for indicative purposes only

Entering the building off the leafy avenue of trees that line Kingston Hall Road, the new entrance creates a statement from the offset. The reception area has been remodelled to provide an extensive seating area with drop down lighting, combining the corporate finishes with light industrial textures of the rough red brick.

THE REVAMP

The Drapery, Kingston has had new life breathed into it. It has been stripped back and is undergoing a comprehensive phased refurbishment with a new design, new M&E and remodelled entrance and reception area. Once fully completed it will offer a self-contained building split over 6 floors. The building provides a unique Grade A modern office environment which has not been seen in Kingston in many years.

EVERYTHING IN PLACE

Kingston is steeped in history since being recorded in a Royal Charter in 838. It boasts a vibrant and comprehensive mix of retail, hospitality and leisure offerings by far surpassing neighbouring commercial centres, and has attracted major office occupiers such as; Saipem Ltd, Unilever, Sitel, Bausch + Lomb, Wolters Kluwer and Travel Republic.

Kingston has been home to a bustling market since the 1200's, and this historical market is still thriving today. The Ancient Market is a stone's throw from The Drapery and home to 28 permanent stalls and trades 7 days a week, 10am – 5pm. It boasts a range of traditional market stall holders including a florist, fishmonger and greengrocers, an artisan bakery and a vibrant street food scene serving up authentic cuisines from across the globe.

Kingston is also a centre of educational excellence being home to Tiffins Girls' and Boys' Schools, Kingston Grammar School and Surbiton High School, while Kingston University and Kingston College attract over 20,000 students.

CONNECTIVITY

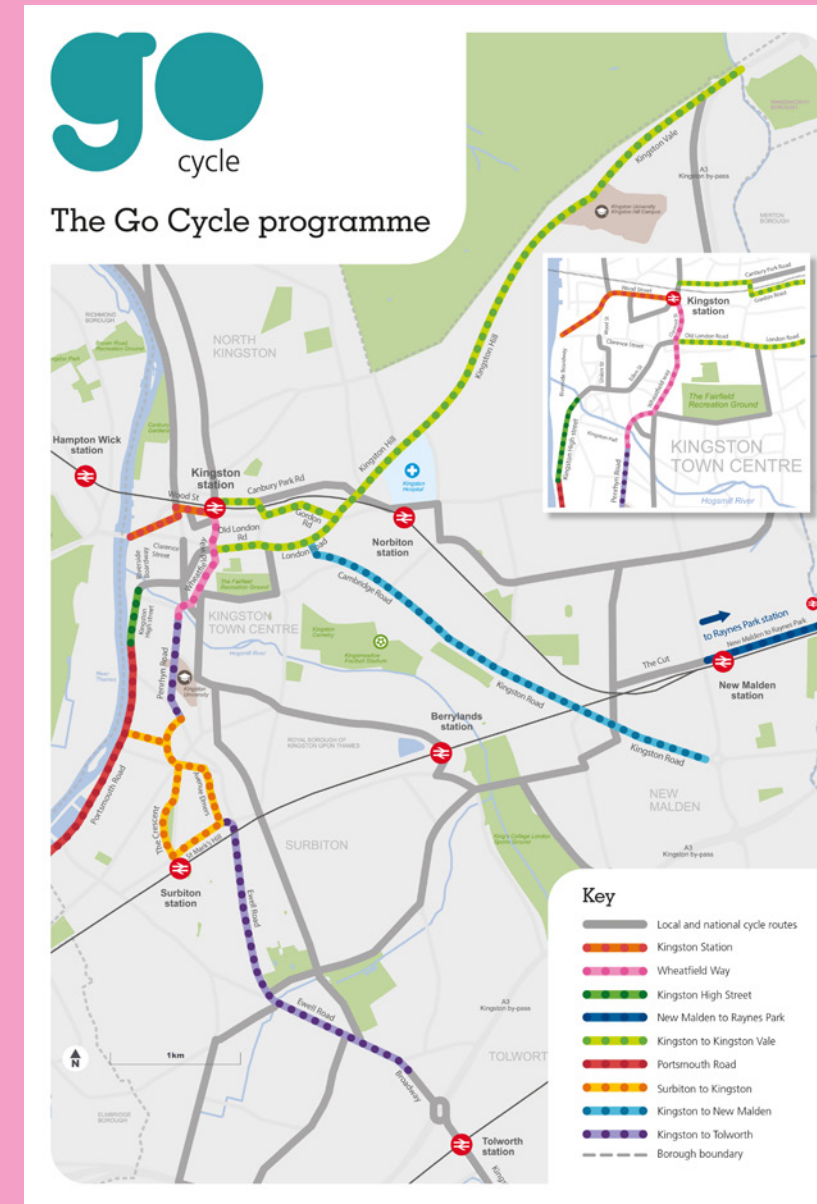

Kingston is one of the best connected London Boroughs due to its proximity to both Central London, with Kingston Railway Station providing regular direct services into London Waterloo in 30 minutes.

It is also close to the M25 and 8 miles south east of Heathrow.

The Go Cycle programme is also a major infrastructure transformation project designed to upgrade Kingston's major highway routes to accommodate the latest cycling infrastructure, while improving the flow of road users, cyclists, and pedestrians, and enhancing the environments through which they travel.
